"FURNACES"

LEFT THE LIBERALS.

A NOTED PEER DESERTS HIS PARTY TO JOIN THE TORIES

The Western Troubles—King Milan Crosses the Bulgarian Frontier—A Battle Incident—Holland Increasing Its Revenues—Foreign Flashes.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—William Henry Forrester, Baron Grosvenor, Liberal Member for Cheltenham, has resigned his seat in the House of Commons and has gone over to the Conservative party. He is announced to preside at a meeting of the Tories to be held soon. Other prominent Liberals are expected to follow his example. Lord Lansdowne's defection is particularly interesting, as he has been a strong advocate of the Liberal doctrines.

The bombshell must have been dropped by Mr. Gladstone and his supporters. In a long speech Forrester told Friday night that he had decided to leave the Liberal party, and that the differences between the two parties upon various measures. That statement is of special interest, as it is believed to indicate that the leaders have given up the idea of uniting the two parties under one roof.

It is included to lose one's mind, but it is more to think than to suffer such a condition when it can be so easily avoided.

In the following there is set forth upon a single sheet of paper the names of the men who have been killed in New York during the year.

The Daily News Saturday is giving a powerful editorial, under the heading "Death of the Year," in which it says: "The death rate in New York is higher than that of any other city in the world."
